1. The ReCAAP ISC had disseminated an Incident Alert (Ref: IA 04/2022 dated 14 Nov 2022) about an Indonesia-flagged general cargo ship, Mutia Ladjoni 7 that has been reported missing since 11 Nov 2022. The ship's last known position was at approximately 80 nm southwest of Amamapare Port, Indonesia in Arafura Sea, near the coast of Wokam, Indonesia and had 15 crew members on board. She was en-route from Timika Papua to Bontang, and expected to arrive on 15 Nov 2022. Consequently, a search and rescue operation was launched to locate the missing ship with her crew.
2. In response to the Incident Alert, the ReCAAP Focal Point for Sri Lanka shared relevant information on the position of Mutia Ladjoni 7 with ReCAAP ISC, who relayed the information to Information Fusion Centre's (IFC) Indonesian International Liaison Officer.
3. According to news sources¹, Mutia Ladjoni 7, together with her crew members, was eventually found drifting on 15 Nov 2022 in Dobo waters. Apparently, the ship had turned towards Dobo, Aru Islands to refuel but reportedly ran out of fuel, lost all power and subsequently lost contact.
4. All crew members were safe, though the master and a crew member had to be evacuated to the hospital for treatment as they were unwell.
