Capacity Building Workshop 5/11

JOINTLY organised by ReCAAP ISC and Focal Point (India) - Indian Coast Guard (ICG), the Fifth Capacity Building Workshop (CBW) was successfully conducted on 15-17 November 2011 at the JW Marriott Hotel in Goa, India.

THE theme for the workshop was "Building Capacity through Enhanced Information Sharing". CBW 5/11 aimed to shared best practices and experiences of Focal Points in responding to incidents of piracy and armed robbery, and to foster closer working relationship and networking among Focal Points. In addition, it provided a platform to enhance operation cooperation among Focal Points and ReCAAP ISC.

AT the welcome address delivered by VADM Muralidharan, Director General of the ICG, stressed the significance of bringing together Focal Points and engagement of various stakeholders to work together in combating piracy and armed robbery against ships.

WHILST LTC(Retd) Nicholas Teo, Deputy Director of the ReCAAP ISC emphasized the importance of Focal Point members to remain engaged and updated with various developments amid the evolving maritime crime.

OTHER than operational-level Officers from Focal Points and other relevant agencies, participants also included representatives from International Maritime Organization (IMO), Indonesian Maritime Security Coordinating Board (BAKORKAMLA), Malaysian Maritime Enforcement Agency (MMEA), and Indian National Shipping Association (INSA). For the second time, representatives of Djibouti Code of Conduct Information Sharing Centres (DCoC ISCs) located in Dar es Salaam (Tanzania) and Mombassa (Kenya) were observers at CBW 5/11.

THE grand finale was an anti-piracy demonstration at sea by Indian Coast Guard (ICG). Two ICG ships, an Interceptor boat, a fixed wing aircraft and a helicopter participated in the coordinated responses to assist in the rescue mission. The boarding teams were also launched by both the ICG vessels. During the exercise the participant also witnessed the firefighting demonstration by the ships at sea. The short demonstration provided the participants an overview of the capabilities of the ICG in combating and suppression of piracy and armed robbery against ship at sea.

Cluster Meeting 2/11, Dhaka/Chittagong, Bangladesh

SECOND Cluster Meeting was jointly organised by the ReCAAP ISC and with Focal Point (Bangladesh) on 11-13 October 2011 in Dhaka and Chittagong of Bangladesh.

THREE other Focal Points—India, Myanmar and Sri Lanka, who have common challenges in the geographical areas, also participated in the Meeting.

AT the session held in Dhaka focusing on inter-agency cooperation, Governor (Bangladesh), Mr Md. Abdul Mannan Howlader, recognised no single agency can tackle sea robbery alone. He expressed appreciation in the conduct of Cluster Meeting as it provided an ideal platform to engage the various stakeholders to share their perspectives, challenges, and ideas in enhancing cooperation.

AT the later session held in Chittagong focusing on engagements with members from shipping industry, Chairman of Chittagong Port Authority, Commodore Md. Anwaruls Islam reiterated the need for close coordination and cooperation between port authority, enforcement agencies and shipping industries.

RECIPROCATE the good efforts, shipping companies at the Port of Chittagong shared their views on seafarers' challenges and proposed more avenues for information exchange processes.
