| 6   | Star ManxBulk carrierIsle of Man (UK)949613532354  | 10/08/132345 hrs | 00° 16' S,117° 36.30' ESamarinda anchorage,Indonesia  | While at anchor, three robbers in boiler suits boarded the bulk carrier which was waiting for the cargo barge. The robbers held the Third Officer, who was on routine rounds at the forecastle. They hit him and threatened him with a knife while another five robbers boarded the vessel, broke the hatch cover with pipes and crowbars and stole the ship stores. The robbers escaped in a speed boat with the stolen stores and the Third Officer's personal belongings upon seeing the duty crew approaching the forecastle. On investigation, it was found that the robbers boarded the vessel by breaking the hawse pipe security steel grill/cover bolt and nut lock. The port authorities were informed. [ReCAAP Focal Point (United Kingdom)]   |

The Chief Officer saw the speed boats and activated the SSAS. One of the crew also managed to alert other vessels anchored nearby via the vessel's radio. The robbers threatened, gathered and tied the crew, including the master, in the mess room. The robbers then ordered the master to go up to the bridge to steer the vessel to Tompok Utara. After a few minutes of sailing, eight of the robbers went to the main deck and left the product tanker. The two remaining robbers then commanded the master to sail to Pulau Lima instead, to wait for speed boat to pick him. After less than seven minutes, the two robbers upon seeing a MMEA patrol vessel approaching Moresby 9, escaped via the port side of the bridge with cash and crew's personal belongings such as mobile phones, laptops and watch. The robbers in their escape, left behind their long knives. The MMEA personnel boarded the vessel, ordered the crew to assemble at the bow of the ship and dropped anchor. [ReCAAP Focal Point (Singapore), MMEA, Shipping company] |
